“ To the Hasty family:
I work with your dad when he served on the El Paso City Council. I was the City's first Administrator from 1977 to 1981. Jim was always thinking about the long term goals of the community. He was a good person. I enjoyed the years we spent together. You were blessed with Jim and your mom.

“ Mike, Pat, Sharon and all the family,
With fond memories of growing up in El Paso, I send you this condolence for the passing of your father. Mike, you are now the patriarch of the family. May the strength of your faith and memories of your mom and dad help you through this time of sadness and change.

“ I was so sorry to read of Jim's death. He was such an insightful, witty, compassionate man, and I thoroughly enjoyed my time as his pastor. Wishing God's presence with all of you at this sad time.

“ Mike, Pat, and Sharon.....I'm very sorry to hear of your dad's passing. He always treated me with respect and friendliness and a sense of humor. I remember sitting down to dinner with your family a couple of times back in the mid 70's by his invitation.
A couple of times when I was going through employment difficulties, he gave me special, personal attention to make my difficult period less stressful. I'll always remember his love for your mom and you children. You were lucky to have him and I for knowing him.
May God Bless him and you, his family, during these sad times.
I shall try to attend visitation, but if I can't make it I will keep all of you in my heart and prayers.
