RICHARD L. HOFFMAN

Roanoke - Richard L. "Dick" Hoffman, 57, of 711 N. Church Street, Roanoke, passed away at 5:55 a.m. on Friday December 28, 2007 at his residence.

He was born on June 6, 1950 in Peoria, IL to Rudolph and Mary Hodel Hoffman. He married Ann K. Farney on December 3, 1972 in Roanoke. She survives.

Also surviving are two daughters, Cheryl (Jim) Wacker; Kristy (Chad) Kaeb; two sons, Eric (Jodi) Hoffman; Matt Hoffman all of Roanoke; nine grandchildren, Jake, Collin, and Luke Wacker; Ethan, Porter, and Nick Hoffman; Kelsey, Josiah, and Abbi Kaeb; two brothers, Tom (Kathy) Hoffman; Mike (Nancy) Hoffman; three sisters, Annie (Jim) Leman; Linda Harris; Julie (Jim) Tibbs; one sister in law Jeanni Hoffman all of Roanoke.

He was preceded in death by his parents and one brother, Timothy J. Hoffman.

An Army veteran, Dick served his country during the Vietnam War.

Dick worked in the construction industry all of his life. He built numerous homes and worked several different jobs in the area. He owned and operated The Stonewood Company in Roanoke for the last 18 years, selling and installing gazebos in the tri state area.

Always looking to lend a hand, he used his skills to help those in need. Dick was very active in the Apostolic Christian World Relief, leading and organizing work teams to help rebuild where disasters had hit or where there was a need.

Family came first with Dick, he was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, brother, and friend. His jovial nature and giving heart will be missed by all who knew him

He was a member of the Roanoke Apostolic Christian Church where funeral services will be held at 10:00 am on Monday. Church ministers will officiate. Visitation will be from 1-5 pm on Sunday at Knapp-Johnson-Harris Funeral Home in Roanoke and from 9-9:45 am on Monday at the church. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

Memorial contributions may be directed to the Apostolic Christian World Relief Fund or to the Apostolic Christian Home of Roanoke. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.knappjohnsonharris.com.
