“ My Aunt Rosie had a sweet spirit about her, which I have missed over the last several years, for not being able to visit her. Some day I will see her again in that wonderful place she has gone. May our Lord comfort you during this time of loss and know she is in a much better place! Love you Aunt Rosie!

“ My sister Rosie was a kind, sweet, loving person. She made others feel happy to be around her as she was such a happy person herself. Now she is reunited with her loving husband, Chuck. She and Chuck used to love driving to California to visit, play pinocle, visit amusement parks, and go to the "Price is Right" show. She lived a Christian life and loved her Father in Heaven immensely. We know she is in a wonderful place standing along side her husband and that someday we will all be reunited. We love you Rosie “ Sending sincere sympathy to Rosie's family and her sister, Jerry. She was such a kind and caring woman and I always looked forward to seeing and talking with her. So sorry I won't be making it to her services. The ice and snow tonight has changed plans but will be thinking of all of you with love. I hope to be able to come and meet all of you that she loved so much. Rest in peace lovely lady.

“ My Aunt Rosie was such a warm and loving person. My fondest memory was when we visited her and Uncle Chuck. I think I was about 9 years old. While we were there a storm came in and we had to go to the basement. Being from California we never experienced those kind of storms and were scared. So Uncle Chuck and Aunt Rosie played games with us all night to keep us calm. I believe it was Pinnacle. They didn't have to do that because just being around her calmed you down. I wish I had the opportunity to spend more time with her. Though the miles between us were great, she was never far from my heart. I love you Aunt Rosie!!

“ Rosie was such a lovely person. My memory of her is going caroling at Maplelawn 2 or 3 years with others from Eureka Methodist. We had a good time singing together. And she always had a smile for me when I saw her. Know she will be missed.
